COMPANY 11 YEARS OLD FILES ITS ARTICLES

Although organized eleven years ago, the Wasatch Irrigation company of He ber did not file its articles of incorporation with the secretary of state until yesterday. The company was organized under the laws of the territory of Utah, Jan. 11, 1896, and at that time it was only required to file its articles with the county clerk. The capital stock is $22,000. The stockholders numbered 125, and the original Inal incorporators were Daniel Baird, Brigham Young, jr., a son of the late apostle of the Mormon church, and William G. Rasband, now a bishop and state senator.

The Cement Engineering company of Ogden also filed articles with the secretary of state. The company has a capitalization of $25,000, divided into shares of a par value of $100 each. The officers are: Aman Moore, president; S. B. Gerbutt, vice president; L. D. Gilbert, secretary and treasurer.
